

Goodwoof 2023

Terms and conditions for Goodwoof have-a-go and studio activities

By purchasing a ticket to Goodwoof 2023 and participating in the have-a-go and studio activities on 20 and/or 21 May 2023 I agree to the following terms and conditions:

1. My dog is fit and healthy to attend the have-a-go activities considering his/her fitness, age, weight and veterinary history on the day of participation.
2. I understand that my dog's welfare is my responsibility throughout the duration of my participation of the activities.
3. I will not leave my dog unattended at any time.
4. My dog shall wear a lead at all times unless permitted not to wear a lead during an activity.
5. My dog is well-socialised (i.e friendly towards other dogs and people including children) and I understand that I am fully responsible for the behaviour of my dog.
6. My dog is not dressed up in costume or in any clothing that restricts their movement or natural behaviour.
7. I will follow and comply with all instructions displayed or given to me by Goodwood or any relevant person for both myself and my dog and I will act in a responsible, sensible and safe manner at all times.
8. I understand and acknowledge that my dog and I participate in the activities entirely at my own risk.
9. I understand that I shall be liable for any damage to property of Goodwood or any third parties caused by my me or my dog.
10. I understand that Goodwood shall not be liable for any loss, damage, claims, costs, expenses, injury or demand suffered directly or indirectly by me as a consequence of my or my dog's attendance or participation in any activity provided that nothing shall exclude any Goodwood's liability for personal injury or death caused by its negligence.
