

WEEKEND IN WALES

17-19 MAY 2024

OVERVIEW ITINERARY

The GRRC are thrilled to be adding to our 2024 Driving Tour calendar with this Weekend in Wales. Join us as we discover hidden mountain passes in Snowdonia, explore the Coastal Way, and enjoy boutique accommodation nestled within tree laden hillside. This 2-night, 2-day tour will give just a taste of a typical GRRC driving tour, featuring fantastic driving, amazing cars, and warm hospitality.

DAY ONE

Expected driving time: 3hrs 57mins*

Expected driving distance: 134 miles

We will rendezvous in a beautiful setting within North Wales, providing a stark backdrop for the start of our Weekend in Wales tour. Following a brief introduction, the team will be on hand to provide you with pre-programmed Garmin Sat Navs to use throughout the duration of the trip, before setting you off on an exploration through Clwydian Range & Dee Valley and the North Wales coast road, before our final stretch takes us into the Snowdonia National Park. Throughout the day you will enjoy long, winding roads, open straights, and hairpin bends. We will arrive at our accommodation for the 2-nights, Caer Rhun Hall Hotel. Following enough time to settle in, we will come together for a drink reception within the hotel grounds to celebrate the start of this trip and meet your fellow members, before going our separate ways for dinner at leisure.

DAY TWO

Expected driving distance: 148.5 miles

Day two will see us travel further into Snowdonia, driving some of the very best roads in the area. Our drive will venture through deep valleys, skirt alongside natural lakes, and bring us to momentous heights of this national park. Midway through the drive you will find yourself joining the infamous Coastal Way, taking us from Penrhyndeudraeth down to Brynchrug. Here, you can enjoy mountainside roads as you gaze out over stretching views of Cardigan Bay. On return to the hotel, after a fantastic day of driving, we will once again enjoy a drink reception before sitting down for a celebratory farewell dinner. Here, we will raise a glass to a truly wonderful weekend of great driving amongst likeminded members.
